05/18/2017	20	ORDER: granting 19 Letter Motion for Extension of Time. (The current schedule calls for the government to process all documents responsive to requests 3, 4, 5, and 6 by May 31, 2017. However, because of the number of responsive records and the limited resources of USMS, it will not be possible to process all of the responsive documents by May 31. The government respectfully requests that the schedule be modified so that the government make rolling monthly productions of approximately one third of the responsive documents for requests 3-6 by May 31, June 30, and July 31, so that all responsive documents are processed by July 31. This proposed date still falls comfortably within the approximately six-month time frame (that is, until approximately October 11, 2017) that the government represented would be feasible at the initial conference on April 11, 2017. Plaintiff has consented to deft. request). SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Sidney H. Stein on 5/18/2017) (ama) (Entered: 05/18/2017)

09/04/2018	55	STIPULATION AND ORDER MODIFYING FOIA REQUEST: NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby STIPULATED and AGREED between the Parties as follows: Defendants' search and processing obligations in this action are governed solely by the terms of this Stipulation, and not by the original Request, except to the extent that this Stipulation expressly incorporates items of the Request ("Items"). Starting on the date both Parties sign this agreement (the "Execution Date"), Defendants will process an average of one thousand pages of potentially responsive records each month, subject to redactions or withholdings for any applicable FOIA exemptions. Starting on August 15, 2018, and on the 15th of each month thereafter (or, if that date is a weekend or federal holiday, the next business day), Defendants will provide Plaintiff the responsive, non-withheld pages processed in the past month. The Parties anticipate that the number of pages processed each month may vary, but the average number of pages processed per month in any 3-month period shall not be less than 900. Defendants' processing obligations under this Stipulation shall be complete when the total number of pages Defendants have processed consistent with the terms of this Stipulation reaches 18,000, regardless of the date when that occurs. Defendants' production for August 15, 2018, may be provided earlier than that date and may be based on priorities the parties have previously agreed on. Defendants will conduct the following additional searches within the timeframes listed, unless the Parties agree or the Court orders otherwise. The "Execution Date" is the date the Parties both sign this Stipulation and provide it to the Court for its approval. As set forth in this Order. Upon the completion of Defendants' search obligations under paragraph 5 of this Stipulation, Plaintiff agrees that Defendant's search obligations for documents responsive to the Request and the separate FOIA request sent to USMS on July 8, 2017 will have been satisfied. All other provisions as further set forth in this order. So Ordered. (Signed by Judge Sidney H. Stein on 9/4/2018) (js) (Entered: 09/04/2018)

03/29/2019		Minute Entry for proceedings held before Judge Sidney H. Stein: Pretrial Conference held on 3/29/2019. The Court reads a decision into the record on the pending motions. Counsel for all parties were present. (lab) (Entered: 04/09/2019)

04/10/2019	61	OPINION: The decedents and their surviving family members indeed have privacy interests in the medical records that Wessler seeks. However, it is also true that the public has a strong interest in understanding the operations of its government. That interest is particularly compelling when the information sought concerns the circumstances under which pretrial detainees individuals presumed to be innocent under the law died while in the custody of the Marshals. Balancing the privacy interests of the decedents and their families against the strong public interest in the records' disclosure, this Court finds that the production of the documents does not constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Accordingly, defendants' motion for partial summary judgment is denied and plaintiff's cross-motion for partial summary judgment is granted. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Sidney H. Stein on 4/10/2019) (kv) (Entered: 04/10/2019)
